ONE IMPRISONED TRYING TO AID OTHERS IN LAKE MICHIGAN OFF CHICAGO.

BOATS MAY BE CRUSHED

Crews Battle All Night to Prevent Destruction of Vessels-Wind Must Shift Before Crafts Can Be Freed and Make Way to Port.

Chicago, Feb. 14.-Fellowing a 12hour battle to free two big lake steamships from the binding ice-floes of Lake Michigan, the steamer Alabama was also caught in the ice on Thursday and is held fast.

Stuck tight as thumb-tacks in drawing-board-and looking like that when viewed from the roofs of Grant Park skyscrapers-the Alabama, the Arizona and the Kansas are imbedded in the thickened surface of the lake.

One hundred and seventy men compose the three crews, and when darkness fell it was reported that the men had been divided into shifts to remain on duty all night to keep the outs twisting a little in their "waterholes" to prevent them from freezing

The danger is for the boats rather Than for the men. The latter, it is said, could get ashore without difficulty over the ice, but there is danger that any sudden and heavy movement of the whole ice field might crush the kulls. It was eight c'clock in the morning when the Kansas of the Northern Michigan Transportation line and the Arizona of the Goodrich Transit company made their first vain attempt to make their piers.

Unably to press through the lo seld these steamships displayed signals indicating their trouble. It was decided that the Alabama, being the est boat available for the task should be sent to meet the Arizona and Kansas and break a channel.

The Alabama with great difficulty forced her way far enough out to stand by the other two, but could not get back. Efforts to release all three of the vessels began at daylight. But without a change of the wind, which The weather bureau does not predict. it is said that little can be done.

(By Denny Dunovan.) Columbus, Ohio.-Efforts are being made to compromise on the Mills bill. Representative King has suggested as an amendment that before any bonds are issued to buy a utility it must be valued by the State Public Utilities commission and found to have been self-supporting for the five years preceding. Should the sale price be fixed at more than 10 per cent of the determined value, no sale can be made until there has been a referendum. Provision is made also that all expenses of operation, after a utility has been taken over, must be met by the revenues and no other money used for that purpose without popular approval.

LESSON FOR FEBRUARY 22.

FAITH DESTROYING FEAR.

LESSON TEXT—Luke 13:1-12.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Every one who shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of Man also confess before the angels of God." Luke 13:1-12. of God."-Luke 12:8.

The first verse of this lesson indicates the character of this period in Following is the governor's procla- the life of our Lord which we are now studying. It was a time of thrilling interest and of intense excitement. A time when the crowds were so great that they "trode one upon another." This may have resulted from the preaching of the seventy; but we of today can see what Jesus then saw, that this interest was only superficial and transitory. So it was that the Master turned "first of all" to his disciples lest they be deceived by this eming popularity. Hiding the Truth.

I. The fear of losing a reputation, vv. 2, 3. The Pharisees made great, pompous claims at their being religious. A hypocrite is one who hides behind a mask, one who is a play actor. It is pretence instead of reality. Therefore, if one is not real his fear of losing his reputation is increased in direct ratio to the extent of his deceit. The principal error of these Pharisees was that they hid the truth and at the same time refused to be ruled by it themselves. Jesus demands a new publicity (v. 2) of service and in the presence of this vast crowd denounces this hypocrisy as being sin. He also says plainly that what restore speech to Miss Ada Robson of they had been saying in darkness will St. Clairsville, who has been unable be proclaimed from the housetops.

Our Lord compares hypocrisy with leaven in that it is the product of corruption, it works secretly, it infects the whole mass. (So hypocrisy will effect our whole life and conduct.) This leaven is a sour spreading corruption that changes the whole character of a man. It cannot be hid. No amount of care can effectually cover our deceit. We may, for a time, hide our sin from men, but God knows and in due time will publish it abroad (v. 3); I. Tim. 5:24. Not alone our acts, but our secret thoughts also. This is comforting and condemning as well. The word of counsel to the seeker of life eternal will have its reward. To the saint of God this thought brings no condemnation, L. John 4: 18. Warned by Jesus.

II. The fear of death, vv. 4, 7. Such publicity will and always has led to persecution, and so Jesus calls his disciples to courage, charging them power over the body, but rather to fear him whose power is over the soul. Notice the manner of address. "my friends, fear not." Intimacy and Columbus, - Supreme court award- courage are suggested. Look up the Christian, however, needs not to fear man or Satan, Isa. 51:12, Rom. 8:31, for the angel of Jehovah (the Lord Jesus) encamps about them that fear Jehovah (Ps. 34:7). Paul tells us that to depart from this life is again, Phil. 1:21: II. Cor. 5:8. We have, therefore, no cause to fear the death of the body. One only, God, has the power after death, to cast the soul into hell (v. 5). He it is who gives us a suggestion of awful consciousness of the soul, and of the body as well, when they are in hell. Matt. 10:28. Jesus has warned us and we are to warn others that they avoid that which was prepared, not for man, but ofr the devil and his angels, Matt. 25:41. Is there a hell? Yes! Else Jesus was deceived or has deliberately deceived us. Thank God. however, that as a man is of more value than a sparrow, so God has prepared better things for those who place their faith in his son, (v. 6). He also looks after the most minute details of our lives, beyond what we can do. down to the counting of the hairs of our head (v. 7). Contrast "Fear him," v. 5, and "Fear not," v. 7. The fear of God produces that obedience and fellowship whereby all other fear is banished. All fear being banished we become conscious of his love and we are inspired to persistent service. III. The fear of making an open confession, vv. 8-12. With such a tender. beautiful assurance of God's care over us it would seem unnecessary for Jesus to admonish his followers about confessing him before the world. Yet such is the persistent hardness and the natural timidity of the human heart that the Master, in mercy, warns his followers, Rom. 10:9, 10 Our Lord looks beyond his disciples to the dispensation of the Spirit and declared that men, speaking against him would be forgiven, but that those who slander, detract and heap vituperation upon the Spirit would commit a sin, a blasphemy, which could not be forgiven. Moreover, in that dispensation of the Spirit, no matter how much men might suffer, or be in danger, they would be taught by that Spirit what they ought to say, vv. 11, 12. The one who commits this sin, deliberately attributes to the Devil what

Matt. 12:22-32. It is a deliberate choice of darkness and the heart is so hardened as to preclude repentance. There is no desire for repentance. Those whom Jesus calls to proclaim the truth concerning the Kingdom of God may depend upon a co-operation of the Holy Spirit which will make them fearless of all opposition. The death of the body is but an incident. As we receive the Comforter and come to know the God of all comfort we begin to sense our value to him in carrying out his enterprises and the mystery of his condescending grace. There is no warrant for undertaking work for Christ without adequate preparation, but there is sufficient warrant for fully trusting him in every
